

CEO APPOINTMENT

The Board of Tirlán Co-operative Society announced today that after leading the organisation through its recent transformation and a highly successful 40-year career, Jim Bergin will retire from his position as CEO on 31 July 2024. The Board is delighted to announce Seán Molloy as CEO Designate following a comprehensive recruitment process.

Seán, who is currently Chief Ingredients and Agribusiness Officer and a director of Tirlán for the past 12 years, will assume the role of CEO on 1 August 2024, allowing for a smooth transition. Seán has been an outstanding strategic leader within the business for the past 18 years.

ENDS

For enquiries please contact: Pat O’Keeffe, Tirlán pwokeeffe@tirlan.ie | +353 87 2414970